Another New Service for Patrons...

Online Practice Driving Tests for cars, motorcycles and trucks now available

Whether you’re getting ready to take the driver’s test for the first time, or you’re taking a refresher course, your library can help. You can now take practice driving tests online by visiting https://wmlnj.driving-tests.org/new-jersey/.

The site offers: 14 car practice tests, 9 motorcycle practice tests, 27 commercial driver’s license (CDL) tests, 3 online driver’s manuals (car, CDL, motorcycle) and a Frequently Asked Questions section (FAQ) that has over 100 questions.

The practice tests feature questions just like those on the official written knowledge test or the test administered by the motorcycle training course. They cover driving techniques, road signs, laws and regulations, and all commercial endorsements. Be prepared to ace the knowledge test!

The Year 1969: 50 Years Later
Wednesday, September 11 at 7:00 pm

What a year it was! Go back in time as lecturer Evan Weiner details the historical events of 1969, and how the events shaped modern culture. Milestone events of 1969 include the landing of the first man on the moon, the introduction of the artificial heart, the Stonewall Riots marking the beginning of the modern gay rights movement, the Miracle Mets World Series victory, and the last public performance by the Beatles, as well as the introduction to the world of such classics as Sesame Street, Monty Python’s Flying Circus, and Arpanet, the precursor to the Internet.

Listen and Learn...

Guitar Power with Anton Del Forno
Saturday, September 14 2:00 pm

Anton Del Forno will demonstrate the guitar's fullest capabilities as a virtuoso instrument. He'll share various guitar techniques through the performance of his own music, discuss what it takes to create a piece of music, and explain why and how he chose the guitar as his instrument. When Anton plays another composer's work, he'll discuss biographical points of interest about that artist. This is a perfect event for those who love listening to music or want to learn how to develop into a better musician!

Honor Domestic Violence Awareness Month with “Private Violence” Wednesday, October 2 at 1:00 pm

Join us in our support for Domestic Violence Awareness Month as we host the documentary “Private Violence,” which explores a simple but deeply disturbing fact of American life: the most dangerous place for a woman in America is in her own home. Through the eyes of two survivors—Deanna Walters, a mother who seeks justice for the crimes committed against her at the hands of her estranged husband, and Kit Gruelle, an advocate who seeks justice for all women—we bear witness to the complicated and complex realities of intimate partner violence.

Civil War Women of Compassion, Courage, and Grit
Wednesday, October 2 at 7:00 pm

A story of survival during wartime—not from cannons and bullets—but of life itself. The women who are left at home without adequate means of support and must provide the basic necessities of food and shelter and still impart their values to their children. New Jersey’s own Cornelia Hancock, rejected as a nurse by Dorothea Dix because she is too pretty, defies her, and goes to Gettysburg to assist the wounded soldiers and stays through the Civil War. Mary Ann Bickerdyke, defies army red tape to care for “her boys,” the wounded, setting up hospitals and kitchens, even following General Sherman through the mountains of Georgia on the way to Atlanta. Sara Pryor, living through the privation and destruction of the South, still has the courage to defy Generals Sheridan and demand rations for the starving women and families in her community. Rich Rosenthal has lectured on numerous historical subjects and is President of the North Jersey Civil War Round Table, and is a Board member and one of the founding members of the North Jersey American Revolution Round Table.

Enjoy the Smooth Voice of Stephen Fuller
Saturday, October 5 at 2:00 pm

Enjoy an afternoon of music in almost every genre! Accomplished musician Stephen Fuller plays an excellent mix of soul, R&B, bluegrass, and jazz. His voice will reach out to everyone who loves music.

Stephen Fuller, a Newark native, is well known about town. This dynamic bass/baritone sings to packed houses, including upscale supper clubs, on either side of the Hudson River. He has performed at New Jersey clubs such as Trumpets Jazz Club in Montclair, the Priory Jazz Club in Newark, Hibiscus Restaurant in Morristown, and the Stony Hill Inn in Hackensack. Make sure you sign up for this glorious singer!
