The Westfield Memorial Library is proud to announce that we have added another downloadable audiobook service to our collection to complement our existing online services.

Called OneClickdigital, the new service greatly expands the number of titles that patrons can borrow. OneClickdigital offers exclusive New York Times best sellers and Recorded Book titles that are unavailable elsewhere.

OneClickdigital allows access to audiobooks at home, in the library or on the go. It’s compatible with all popular listening devices including Apple, plus all the titles are downloadable from iPhone, Android, or Kindle Fire apps.

Some of the new titles in the Westfield Memorial Library collection include: The City by Dean Koontz, Ghost Ship by Clive Cussler, Mrs. Lincoln’s Dressmaker by Jennifer Chiaverini, and Round House by Louise Erdrich, along with classics such as Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte, 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea by Jules Verne and Call of the Wild by Jack London.

“It’s exciting to be able to offer our patrons additional downloadable audiobooks,” said Phil Israel, Library Director. “By adding OneClickdigital, we now offer more popular books than ever before.”

To gain access to the OneClickdigital titles, visit westfieldmemorialnj.onelickdigital.com.

Get Your New Tote Bag from the Friends!

On Sale at the Circulation Desk For $9.00

The Friends are offering a new 13 oz canvas tote bag with sewn, longer handles. The bag is 19 inches wide and 12 inches high with a 4 inch bottom—good for toting books or whatever. Profits benefit the library.

Let’s Discuss The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt on Wednesday, October 15 at 2:00 pm

Join the Friends Book club to discuss this riveting tale of how a painting taken from the Metropolitan Museum of Art changes a boy’s life and becomes his prize, guilt and burden. Meeting dates for 2015 are January 21, March 18 and May 26. Titles to be decided at the October meeting.

The 2014 Anne and Lee Hale Speaker Series Continues

The 2014 Anne and Lee Hale Speaker Series continues on September 17 at 7:00 pm with a talk on “Westfield, the Sports Capital of New Jersey,” by Bruce Johnson, a former Westfield resident and author of the column, Devil’s Den, in The Westfield Leader. Johnson has written three books related to sports and is considered an authority on Westfield’s sports history. Freia Mitarai, the former executive director of The Westfield Foundation, will discuss “The Volunteer Program at the Metropolitan Museum of Art” in a November 5 talk at 7:00 pm. Mitarai, who lived for many years in Westfield and is now a Manhattan resident, is on the Executive Committee of the Volunteer Organization at the museum where more than 400 volunteers offer 35 tours daily in many languages.

The series was started by Lee Hale in honor of his wife, Anne, who was active in the community prior to her death in 2007. Mr. Hale passed away last year. Funding comes from the Thomas Glasser Foundation and the Anne and Lee Hale Fund. Pre-registration is required: call the library at 908.789.4090 ext. 0, or register by visiting www.wmlnj.org and then clicking on Calendar.

Start Preparing for the October Children’s Book Sale

Once again, a wide variety of high-quality materials will be offered at rock-bottom prices. Donations of gently-used hardcover and soft cover books, audio books, and DVDs—everything from “baby board book” level up through young adult materials are welcome. We cannot accept videos, magazines, damaged or moldy books, encyclopedias, or records.

Donation Days are Tuesday, October 21 from 2:00 to 7:00 pm; Wednesday, October 22 from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm; and Sale Days are Thursday, October 23 from 11:00 am to 8:00 pm; Friday October 24 (1/2 price day) from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm; and Saturday, October 25 (Bag Day) from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. Anyone who would like to volunteer, please contact Judy Tasoff at jtasoff527@gmail.com.

Cinema and Television: the New Jersey Connection on Saturday, September 6 at 2:00 pm

Walter Choroszewski is proud of New Jersey and celebrates the state's historic contributions to American cinema and television—from Edison's Black Maria Studio to the numerous Jersey-born artists that have starred on the big and little screens. Walter showcases New Jersey as the Birthplace of Silent Film and he covers New Jersey's popularity as a location for movies and Reality TV.

How to Create a Winning LinkedIn Profile on Wednesday, September 10 at 6:30 pm or Thursday October 9 at 6:30 pm

Most employers automatically turn to LinkedIn to research potential job candidates, and a recent poll said that 89% of companies plan to recruit through LinkedIn. If you don’t have a LinkedIn profile, you will miss out on some valuable job search opportunities. This fast-paced program takes you through the steps needed to design a strong, complete, “All Star” LinkedIn profile. You will create an accounting of your work experience including a Summary Statement, Experience, Skills, Education and Outside Activities. You will also learn the technique needed to be seen on the first three pages of a LinkedIn People Search. This is a hands-on class, taught by Nancy Anderson, President of Blackbird Learning Associates, a job search training company. You must register for this class as seating is limited. You may bring your own laptop or tablet, but please let us know if you need to use one of ours. See page 7 for Nancy's program “How to Search for a Job—Successfully” on October 18.

Learn How to Download Zinio Magazines on Monday, October 6 at 6:30 pm

This is an interactive presentation, NOT a hands-on workshop. It’s designed to answer all your questions about our digital magazine service called Zinio Magazines. Zinio recreates a magazine page for page, including full-color pictures, intuitive navigation, key word article search and interactive elements such as audio and video. Zinio is accessible through PCs, MACs, iPhones, iPads, Androids, Kindle Fire/FireHD, Nook HD/HD+, and BlackBerry Playbook. Andrew Gross, a representative from RBdigital Recorded Books, will present this fantastic service, and go through all the steps you will need to view and download titles.

Maggie Worsdale Presents Blazin’ Blondes
on Wednesday, October 1 at 7:00 pm

Maggie Worsdale

This show is a tribute to Marlene Dietrich, Mae West and Sophie Tucker. Maggie Worsdale talks about their lives, careers, how they blazed their trails, and then sings their famous songs. Songs include: Frankie and Johnny, Lili Marlene, My Yiddish Mama, Some of These Days and, of course, Falling In Love Again. Powerhouse performers, powerhouse show. An international artist, Maggie has performed at many of the major concert halls, cabarets and jazz venues around the country and in Europe.

She has released four studio albums and has appeared as a guest artist on three others. Maggie has a voice that defies categorization. Jazz, Broadway, standards and novelty songs are all part of her repertoire. She is a richly talented, entertainer who has that special something, that natural born nuance, that captures an audience. In 2009 and 2010 Maggie was selected as one of the 10 Best Jazz Singers in NY/NJ area and was featured in the annual Sinatra Birthday Bash Celebration at the world famous Count Basie Theater in Red Bank, N.J.

Learn about the Historical Haunts of Central Jersey
on Wednesday, October 8 at 7:00 pm

What ghosts roam within the historic sites and buildings of central New Jersey? How accurate are the traditional stories? From the shadowed woods of the Somerset Hills to the dappled banks of the Delaware River, Historic Haunts delivers a rich mix of factual history and the sound investigation of ghostly phenomena. Gordon Thomas Ward's many years of experience with the collection of forensic-based evidence to both dismiss and support claims of hauntings, especially in historic locations, led to his book Ghosts of Central Jersey. His most recently published book Tracing Infinity: Bridging the Gap between Earth and Heaven is more spiritual in nature.

The Final Page of Programs for Adults!

“Memoirs and Boudoirs”: A One-Woman Play by Dorothy Leeds on Thursday, November 13 at 7:00 pm

Join emcee Katie Sawyer (Dorothy Leeds) as she and the “cast” of “Memoirs and Boudoirs” (the first time-travelling television magazine show) take you on an amazing journey through history and directly into the lives, ballrooms, backrooms, and bedrooms of Kings, Queens, Scoundrels, Lovers and Warriors. This 80-minute, one-act play with music and audience interaction offers an exciting ride back in time where you’ll hear scintillating stories and titillating tidbits from notables in their own words. Imagine a world before the Internet, smart phones, Facebook, Skype, Twitter and selfies.

What did people do? How did they survive? How did they communicate? They wrote lengthy letters (tons of them), kept detail-filled diaries and penned juicy memoirs. “Memoirs & Boudoirs” presents audiences, through the words of these naughty notables themselves, with answers to questions like: Why did the Marquis de Sade hate his mother-in-law? What was Henry VIII like when he was young, slim and in love? How many lovers did Catherine the Great really have? 10? 20? 2000? Who had a better claim to the throne of England, Mary, Queen of Scots, or Elizabeth I of England?
