

Ten Wonderful Programs for Children From the Friends of the Westfield Memorial Library—Thank you so much!

Animal Friends. Visit with our friend Travis, from Wallaby Tales, as he helps us love and respect wild animals. Children must be between the ages of 2½ through 5, and must show their own full-service Westfield Memorial Library card. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, January 21. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

What Big Teeth You Have! Join Travis as he introduces us to predators, which must be resourceful, alert and adaptable in order to survive. Children must not be younger than six and must present a full-service Westfield Library card. Adults stay in the room with their children. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, January 21. Time: 12 Noon to 1 p.m.

Once upon a Time: Old Tales with a New Twist. Join popular and dynamic storyteller Lorraine Hartin-Gelardi as she uses familiar stories to tell new tales. Ages 4 to 7. Parents stay in the room. Please register online. Date: Saturday, January 28. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

It's the Wolf! Join us as we follow Mr. Wolf through some of his most famous adventures. Ages 4 and older will enjoy this puppet show, presented by Tucker's Tales. Children must have their own full-service Westfield Library card and absolutely must be age 4 or older. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, February 4. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

iMaracas! gives an interactive Spanish family presentation for El Día de San Valentín (Valentine's Day). Bring the kids for a morning filled with Spanish language fun! Open to the public. Please register online. Date: Saturday, February 11. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Family Astronomy Night. Meet first in the Library's meeting room on the main floor to learn about our solar system, eclipses, and more.

Then, weather permitting, we will exit the building to peer at the dark night sky with telescopes and binoculars. This is a program for families and is open to the public. Please register online. Date: Wednesday, February 22. Time: 6:15 to 8:45 p.m.

Dinoman! You won't believe how much Bob Lisaius loves dinosaurs! With magic, merry mayhem and magnificent props, you'll be taken on a trip through the Mesozoic era. Ages 4 and up. Please do not bring children under the age of 4 to this presentation. Children must have their own full-service Westfield Library card. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, March 3. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Live Great Reptiles. For ages 5 and up, and parents, Live Great Reptiles brings children the chance to learn about reptiles through a presentation including humor, awe and compassion for these beautiful creatures. Children must have their own full-service Westfield Library card and absolutely must be age 5 or older. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, March 10. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Jennifer Slaw, Juggler. Professional juggler Jen Slaw delights and instructs. For ages 4 and older, with parents. Children must have their own full-service Westfield Library card. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, March 17. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.

Turtlesinger: Live Turtles and Song. Trained singer and naturalist Karen Buckley--and her favorite turtles, of course--inspires us with how much she loves her turtles, and all animals on the planet. For ages 3 to 5, with parents. Children must have their own full-service Library card and absolutely must be age 3 or older. Online registration required. Date: Saturday, March 24. Time: 10:30 to 11:15 a.m.
